

Ed Peyronnin

Job Title: IT Director for College of Agricultural Sciences. I arrived at CSU as a student in 1992 after military service on a grant for disabled veterans.

Ed/Cycling connections: haven't purchased a parking pass in fifteen years and very proud of it.

Notable student taught: Jacob Castillo, co-founder of Panda bikes.

Scariest ride: being chased by a pack of dogs when living in Giannitsa, Greece.

Nicest streets: Giessen, Germany.

Most scenic ride: going to language school in Monterey from home in Big Sur along Highway 1.

"Air-Guitar" ride: Humming Mendelsohn's Italian symphony on a long ride while a graduate student at Indiana University.

Hottest ride(s): summer in Lawton, Oklahoma - regularly over 110 degrees.

Earliest long ride: from home in Deerfield Illinois to Lake Geneva, Wisconsin (about 80 miles) on a Schwinn 5 speed when 11 years old.

Hardest ride: Rist Canyon.

Cool moment: son texting "out of the blue" to do the Masonville loop for Father's Day the next morning.

Next "dream" ride: Southwestern France to the Peyronin Winery near Bordeaux.

Thing most liked about riding: getting in touch with myself.

Thing least liked about riding: gravity.
